Footnote:

1) Environment Day will be celebrated through a special assembly and teachers will plan various activities such as watching relevant documentaries, making posters to create awareness about environment issues.

2) Father's Day for Montessori and Grade I and II

Father's Day is celebrated on 3rd Sunday of June. Students from Montessori to Grade II will make a card for their respective fathers and take it home to present it to their father on Monday 17th June.

3) Montessori Art Theme for the month: scribbling.

Each month Montessori teachers will take up one art theme and introduce it to the students once a week for the entire month. Time required maybe around 15 to 20 minutes.

One of the steps for pre-writing skills is scribbling and this can be made to an art.

Therefore, taking up scribbling as the first art theme for the month. The students will be introduced to this through two story books at different times during the month.

1. Lines that wiggle by Candace Whitman : <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=3UDqx4OQoMk>

2. I'm Not Just a Scribble by Diane Alber : <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=gRuO9bGD108>

3) International Yoga Day

The Special Assembly will have talk about the origin of yoga, its benefits, different school/style of yoga etc.

The yoga teacher will conduct yoga for the whole school in 2 to 3 batches. Teachers will join the session.

4) Student Council Election for students of Grades V to VIII

Note: We plan on introducing the process of elections to Grade V students too, as they are capable of participating in the same. They study about democracy in social science lesson and therefore it would be a good idea to give them a first-hand exposure of the process.

5) Green colour day for Montessori : Students of Montessori are introduced to green colour through a story, song/rhyme and various activities.

There are two story books that will be used for the colour green:

1. I Do Not Eat the Colour Green! By Lynne Rickards

2. What Does it Mean to be Green ? Eco-Pig Explains Living Green by Lisa French
